

CoMA: COLLABORATION

Open call for performers

Sunday 8 March 2020,
Queen Mary University

Now's your chance to join the London Sinfonietta and Contemporary Music for All (CoMA) for a marathon day of contemporary music as part of The Festival of Contemporary music for All. This is your opportunity to rehearse and perform contemporary repertoire alongside the world-class musicians of the London Sinfonietta for free!

You can perform a piece from the ABRSM Spectrum series for either piano, cello, violin, trumpet, clarinet, piano duet or string quartet as part of a concert in the form of a marathon of short, 5 minute performances.

CoMA: COLLABORATION

What? CoMA is a national organisation committed to bringing contemporary music to people whatever their musical ability. This year, they have teamed up with the London Sinfonietta for a marathon day of performances of the ABRSM Spectrum series. There will also be the opportunity to sign up for a masterclass, where a member of the ensemble will workshop a piece of your choice.

Who? We welcome interest from all members of the public (those under 18 will need to be accompanied by an adult). There is no charge to participate.

When? Participants need to be available all day on Sunday 8 March at Queen Mary University of London. Rehearsals will take place from 10.30am-12.30pm. The Marathon will take place from 1.30-3.30pm and will be open to members of the public. Specific times will be allocated closer to the day.

London Sinfonietta Masterclass Please also let us know if you would like to have the opportunity to take part in an open masterclass with a musician from the London Sinfonietta. Anyone who plays one of the instruments listed may apply. You can choose your own piece to perform, although we encourage pieces written between 1900 and 2019. Please note, there will be a £10 charge to offset administration costs.
